

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Benner Township, Centre County, PA — State College Regional Airport (SCE) and Centre County Airport Authority officials confirm that the police incident reported earlier today has concluded and has been resolved safely.

Law enforcement responded promptly and professionally to the situation. At no time was there an ongoing threat to the public, and the incident ended without injury.

Airport operations have returned to normal. Travelers are encouraged to check directly with their airline for the most current flight information.

The airport thanks local, state, and federal law enforcement partners and fire department volunteers for their swift response, as well as passengers and employees for their cooperation and patience.

Additional information will be released if warranted.
